This course is interesting for all kinds of singers and actors, who want to know more about voice, working with the innovative and fascinating Estill model. Jo Estill is a well known American voice scientist and voice teacher, who spent at least 30 years of her life to study voice and different voice qualities. She has created a system, where all kinds of singing are accepted – rock, pop/soul, jazz, classic and musical, as long as we do it safe. We will go through all the Basic Figures in the Level One Course and the six Voice Qualities in the Level Two Course and integrate them in a repertoire.

Read more about this method on www.trainmyvoice.com

You can register for both Level One and Two, if you are interested in the full course or you can register just for Level One now and get Level Two later in 2012.

We like to inform you that there are space limitation on Level Two since some of the spaces on this course are already booked.
